Identifying Academic Risk Through Integrated Student Data

GitHub Project

Tableau | Calculated Fields | Parameters | LOD Expressions | Dashboard Actions

- Built three Tableau dashboards connecting grades, attendance, behavior, and interventions for 120 students using calculated fields, parameters, LOD expressions, and dashboard actions.
- Identified a 0.507 attendance-grade correlation and a 12.37-point grade gap below 85% attendance, supporting earlier student review.
- Created schoolwide, subgroup, and individual views to help leaders prioritize follow-up while keeping intervention decisions under human review.

Prioritizing Global Health Needs with Auditable SQL

GitHub Project

MySQL | CTEs | Window Functions | Conditional Aggregation | Correlation | Data Validation

- Cleaned and validated 2,941 records into 2,938 country-year observations across 193 countries; analyzed trends and peer benchmarks using CTEs and window functions.
- Built a six-indicator review score and identified schooling as the strongest positive correlate with life expectancy ($r = 0.784$).
- Produced a traceable second-stage review list for resource prioritization rather than an automatic funding recommendation.

Balancing Revenue and Unit Demand for Product Strategy

GitHub Project

Excel | PivotTables | PivotCharts | Slicers | Data Cleaning | KPI Dashboard

- Cleaned 30,394 raw rows into 30,206 validated transaction lines and built an interactive dashboard covering $5.64M in revenue, 29,018 orders, and 33,969 units sold.
- Showed laptops and phones generated 61% of revenue while batteries led unit volume but contributed less than 1%, separating value-driving products from demand-driving products.
- Added city and category slicers so sales leaders could compare product and market performance without rebuilding reports.
